THE BOERS' NATIONAL HYMN.

The following is a translation of the national hymn of the South African Republic:

THE VOLKSLED.

Right nobly gave our trekkers brave
Their blood, their lives their all
For Freedom's right
In Death's despite,
They fought at duty's call.
Ho, burghers! High our banner waved,
The standard of the free,
No foreign yoke our land enslaveth,
Here reigneth liberty.
'Tis Heaven's command,
Here we should stand
And awe defend the folk and land.
What realm so fair, so richly fraught
With treasures ever new,
Where Nature bath her wonders
wrought,
And freely spread to view.
Ho, burghers, old! Be up and singing,
God save the volken land.
This, burghers new, your anthem ringing,
O'er yeld, o'er hill, o'er strand.
And burghers all,
Stand ye or fall,
For hearth and homes at country's call.
With wisdom, Lord, our rulers guide,
And these thy people bless;
In peace and righteousness,
To Thee, whose mighty arm hath shielded
Thy folk in bygone days,
To Thee alone be humbly yielded
All glory, honor, praise.
God guard our land,
Our own dear land,
Our children's home, their Fatherland!

WIDOW MARRIES QUICKLY.

Frank Harvey died at Belair, Md., on Friday last week and Tuesday evening his widow, Mrs. Minnie Harvey, became the bride of Prof. Herbert J. Frawley, of the Newport News Military Academy.

The whole affair is decidedly romantic and interesting. Mrs. Harvey went to Newport News some time ago, a pretty and attractive little woman, and soon was employed by Mrs. M. W. Tenney, a local photographer. Mrs. Harvey had left her husband on account of alleged ill treatment and a few weeks ago she commenced action against him by consulting an attorney relative to a suit for divorce. Saturday morning she read in the paper of the death of her husband at Belair, and she immediately went to her attorney and instructed him to take no further steps in the matter. Upon an investigation it was brought out that Frank Harvey, in his will, had left to his wife, Minnie, his life insurance, which amounted to quite a snug sum. Tuesday she is said to have received the papers notifying her of this fact. A few months ago Mrs. Harvey decided to learn stenography, and she entered the class at the academy of which Prof. Frawley was instructor. The romance ended Tuesday evening at St. Paul's Episcopal Church, when the Rev. J. Francis Riddle made them husband and wife.

COURTSHIP TAX REPEALED.

The courtship tax levied upon the young men of the South Vineland, N. J., vicinity by the ladies of the South Vineland M. E. church has been repealed because it has accomplished its purpose. About a month ago the ladies, desiring to raise money to purchase a new organ, hit upon the plan of levying a tax upon the singing swains. So it was arranged that a young woman connected with the church must pay a tax of ten cents for each call.

The plan worked admirably. The young women entered into the spirit of the thing and encouraged the calls, and there arose considerable rivalry among them as to who should turn the largest amount of cash into the treasury. When one pretty girl paid 90 cents for one week she was asked how she managed to entertain nine callers in seven evenings.

"They don't all have to come in the evening, do they?" she asked blushing. So far $82.80 has been turned in by the fair ones, and it is said about $5 is ready for transfer.

POPE LEO'S BIRTHDAY.

The Pope yesterday afternoon received in the Throne Room the members of the Sacred College and the Roman prelates who presented to him congratulations upon the occasion of his birthday.

The Pontiff's reply was read by Mgr. Misicelli. After thanking the prelates for their wishes as to his health the Pope dwelt on the divine mercy "which sometimes makes use of the weakest to guide, during many years, Peter's bark." He referred to the Holy Year celebrations and the demonstrations in honor of Giordano Bruno, the Italian philosopher, attributing the latter to the work of Satan. The address concluded with expressing a keen desire that blood would cease to flow in the South Africa "where two peoples, although brothers, are slaughtering one another."

Pope Leo expressed the hope that they would soon meet and embrace in the kiss of peace.

The Pope is 90 years old.

QUESTION ANSWERED.

Yes, August Flower still has the largest sale of any medicine in the civilized world. Your mothers and grandmothers never thought of using anything else for indigestion or biliousness. Doctors were scarce, and they seldom heard of Appendicitis, Nervous Prostration or Heart failure, etc. They used August Flower to clean out the system and stop fermentation of undigested food, regulate the action of the liver, stimulate the nervous and organic action of the system, and that is all they took when feeling dull and sad with headaches and other ills. You only need a few doses of Green's August Flower, in liquid form, to make you satisfied there is nothing serious the matter with you. For sale by Cream Balm is quickly absorbed by the membrane and does not dry up the secretions, but changes them to a natural and healthy character. Ely Brothers, 56 Warren Street, N. Y.
